LARGEST SHOPPING CENTER MAY LOCATE IN NORTH WILMINGTON

The largest shopping center in Massachusetts, if not in the country is becoming a possibility, right here in Wilmington.

Fred F. Cain, local automobile dealer, who has been spending the past several years accumulating options in land in Tewksbury and Wilmington, now has a major New York store which is definitely interested in locating in North Wilmington.

The new North Industrial Park and Shopping Center has now acquired an option on the land of Bob Evans, between Ballardvale Street and Route 93, and just north of Route 125, and it is on that site that the New York store wishes to locate.

A partner of Mr. Cain, Monte F. Green, with offices at 678 Mass Avenue in Cambridge, has said that several New York stores are interested, and that he is talking, at the present time, with a major Boston store.

Other associates include Anthony Gargullo and Paul Hollan, Cambridge attorneys.

Green has said that three New York stores have backed their assurances with definite space figures. They are interested in the location because it can draw on a population of two million, within a 30 minute drive. However, a major Boston department store must be signed before any commitments are made by the New York stores. Green said that the plans call for a 100 acre parking lot, with 1,480,000 square feet devoted to retail store space. There are also plans for a motel, and for high rise apartments.

40 or 50 smaller stores can be expected into the shopping center if the New York and Boston stores become active, according to Green.

Most of the land in the shopping center would be in North Wilmington. It would include all of the Evans land west of Ballardvale Street, as well as land to the north of the Evans property. All of the properties are under option to Mr. Cain and his associates.

It is interesting to note that one of the articles in the Town Meeting of next March calls for a rezoning of this land for industrial purposes.

The land owned by Evans, and under option to Mr. Cain has already been so zoned.

HOT RACE FOR SCHOOL BOARD HAS STARTED: With four major contestants declared, Arthur V. Lynch, Ernest Crispo, George Robertie and (above) Arthur J. Brewster.

Lynch and Robertie are incumbents. Crispo has had many years on the School Board, and Brewster came very close to election last year. Above Brewster's campaign started, Monday night, at Rocco's Restaurant, with a crowd of about 100 supporters.

(The Town Crier regrets that, due to lack of space, it is unable to present the stories of the candidates this week.)

DAVID DEMING HAS JOINED US MARINE CORPS

David R. Deming, son of Mrs. Christine Deming, 56 Federal St. has enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps. He is to undergo 11 weeks of recruit training at Parris Island, South Carolina, after which he will be transferred to Camp LeJeune, NC for four additional weeks of individual combat training, and will then be granted a twenty day leave.

WILFRED LETELLIER UNDERGOING MENTAL TESTS

Wilfred LeTeller, 20, of Shawshen Avenue, accused of the murder of Mary Pratt, of Adams St. is undergoing mental tests, at the Bridgewater prison, tests in Bridgewater prison, undergoing a 35 day observation period, mandatory in all cases in which murder is accused.

He was arraigned on a charge of murder, in the Superior Court in Cambridge, on January 10th.

MORAL: DO NOT STEAL - SPECIALLY FROM A COP!

Joseph LeBlanc, 28, of Waltham was fined $100, in Woburn Court, Tuesday, by Justice Sartorelli, after pleading guilty to the theft of building materials, from a house being built on Middlesex Avenue the previous day. The house is located opposite to Mystic Ave. in North Wilmington.

Officer Dolan, of the Wilmington police, noticing a car parked by the road, at 10:30 in the evening, stopped to investigate.

He found LeBlanc in the building.

LeBlanc told Dolan that he had had a breakdown, and was looking for something to help fix the car. He explained the two packages of wall board in the back of his station wagon by saying that he was a builder.

Dolan asked for a sales slip, and LeBlanc could not produce any. Then Dolan called the police station, on the radio.

The officer who answered the radio call was James Palmer, who is building the home in his spare time.

Palmer hurried down to the scene, and identified the wallboard in the station wagon as his own, after which LeBlanc suddenly confessed.

It was only then that LeBlanc learned he had been stealing from a cop!

LANCASTER KNEW OF $25,000 SAYS TANNER

Former Town Manager Cecil Lancaster knew of the $25,000 which the state legislature voted in 1962, for dredging the Ipswich River, State Representative Frank Tanner of Reading declared, Tuesday.

The news that the money was available, and had been for two years came as a distinct surprise Monday night, to the Board of Selectmen.

By the terms of the 1962 vote of the Legislature, the money must be matched by an equal amount from the Town of Wilmington, and must be spent in the dredging of the Ipswich River, under the direction of State engineers, within the town of Wilmington.

$20,000 had already been voted, in previous years, by Town Meeting vote, leaving only $5000 more to be voted by the town.

After expressing his surprise that Representative Tanner had not notified the town, Selectman John Brooks, Monday night, moved that the Selectmen insert an article into the warrant for the annual town meeting, asking for a vote for the $5000.

The Selectmen voted unanimously, and the warrant, it is understood, will be signed in next Monday's meeting.

Knowledge of the money which has been in the state treasury for the past two years came to light as the result of an investigation by the Wilmington Finance Committee.

That committee, in a meeting three weeks ago, resolved to investigate the present status of some of money which had been voted by the town, and not used.

Secretary Fred Arsenault of Dell Drive was instructed to write to the State about the money that had been voted for use, under the provisions of Chapter 91, General Laws, and was just as surprised as was other officials of Wilmington to learn that the money was waiting for the town to ask for it.

The letter, signed by Francis W. Sargent of the Division of Waterways, was read in the Selectmen's meeting, Monday.

Tanner told the Town Crier that the former Town Manager of Wilmington had gone with Tanner to the hearing, on Nashua Street, at the time of the legislative action, and that he knew of the results. 'I did not mention it in my 1963

PREVENTATIVE HEALTH PROGRAMS

The Wilmington Board of Health, for some time past, has been conducting a preventative program with relation to whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus and polio, with special emphasis on children under five years of age.

It has conducted special clinics, and it also conducts a regular monthly Immunization Clinic for children, the first Tuesday of each month, in the office of the Public Health Nurse, in the Staveley Building, next to the Mechanics Savings Bank.

At the present time the Board is considering an expansion of this program.

Congress, in 1962, passed the Vaccination Assistance Act, which grants monies to State Boards of Health, part of which money can be passed on to the local board, and it is this which interests the local officials.

Will the adults of Wilmington be interested if the Wilmington Public Health Department offers such things as a re-vaccination against tetanus, for adults, or similar measures.

Some of the women of this town may never have had such a preventative measure, and the chances are that there are men who have had none since their Army days, which might have been World War II.

CANDIDATES WILL SOON BE NEEDED

The new legislative district, the 19th Middlesex, Wilmington, Burlington and two wards in Woburn, will soon be electing its own representative for the State House, and sooner or later the people of this district will have to be thinking of who is to be this man.

As an opening gambit, the Town Crier can suggest the names of two men to be candidates - one Democrat and one Republican. Without doubt the names of others will pop up, for the voters to consider.

Charles Shea, a Democrat, and Chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Burlington, and Charles H.
Black, a Republican, and Chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Wilmington, are both highly qualified gentlemen, either of whom is capable of filling the new post with honor and distinction.

ON BORROWING MONEY

One of our readers, after reading the comments in this column relative to the story that there was no consideration given to the borrowing of money with "Anticipation of Revenue" bonds for the first year,

SUSIE'S SONNETS

by Sylvia Neilson

SCRATCHED RECORD?

in the building of the Woburn Street School, has brought up the point that it was a High School Building Committee, and not the Permanent Building Committee that built the High School.

Factually he is correct, and there was no intentional slighting of those gentlemen, who performed a very fine service for the town.

The point of the story was that we are dealing with a present situation, in which it is conceivable that the town has lost money.

It is interesting to note that the Treasurer of the Town of Burlington, just this past week, has sold $500,000 in Anticipation of Revenue bonds, for 2%, and then he turned around and bought other securities which paid 3.75%, to the value of $250,000.

Which illustrates the point that any Treasurer in Massachusetts not only can, but does do this, as did happen in the past in Wilmington.

HOW FAR TO STRETCH $50,000?

In the past this column has told the tale of how Minot Anderson, then a private civil engineer, and some friends which included the present Selectman Rene LaRivee, 10 or 12 years ago did some work to determine if it were feasible to dredge the Ipswich

At that time it was determined that for about $25,000 the river could be dredged from Jenks'
Bridge in Wilmington to the Mill Bridge, in North Reading. It was hoped to raise the money locally, and not go through the rigamarole of the State Legislature.

But the Selectmen of that day thought differently.
It would be easy, they vowed, to get the state to do it, so why should the local taxpayers?

The state paid $25,000 for a survey, and that was all.

Now suddenly the Town will have $50,000 to do some dredging, $25,000 in state funds, and $25,000 in town funds, if it votes another $5000 in the annual town meeting, in March.

So we will have twice as much money to spend, in a distance that will only be one quarter of the original distance - for all the money must be spent in Wilmington.

It will be a good trick - if it can be done!

Of course perhaps the meaning of the word river could be made even more liquid, and some dredging could be done on some of the tributaries - Lubbers' Brook, and the Maple Meadow Brook, for instance.

The :

The TM, if he is on the job, might even get the dredging boys to do a job up towards Westdale Avenue, where they have had water in their back yards ever since Noah was a pup, and twice as much since Route 93 went through!

The Wilmington School Committee, last week, named Miss Evelyn Desmarais Supervising Principal of Wilmington's newest elementary school district.

The home office of the new district is to be the Woburn Street School, scheduled for completion Sept. 1, 1964. Another school will probably be included in the district.

Miss Desmarais, who has been a teacher in the Wilmington Public Schools for the past eight years, lives in North Chelmsford, and will assume her new duties on August first.

She is at the present time the Principal of the Wildwood Street School, and taught in Amherst before coming to Wilmington. A graduate of Lowell State College, she received her master's degree from Boston College in 1957.

Active in the Girl Scouts, she is serving as chairman of the Selections Committee for National and International Girl Scout encampments, which involved the selection of girls to represent this area for the encampments. Other activities include membership in the Massachusetts Teachers' Association, the National Educational Association, and the Wilmington Teachers' Association, where she holds the position of Permanent Executive Secretary of the Salary Committee.

ONE MONTH FROM CRIME TO CONVICTION

Wilmington police, yesterday, had the pleasure of chalking up a score of just one month from the commission of a major crime to the sentencing of the criminals to jail.

Ronald Blaisdell, of Revere was sentenced to an indefinite term in the Concord Reformatory, as a participant in the crime.

Sergeant Shepard, of the Wilmington police was in charge of the investigation, assisted by Patrolmen Palmer and Brennan.

ELBRIDGE WITHAM APPOINTED ASSOCIATE SPONSOR, DALE CARNEGIE COURSES

William Charles Studio

Mr J Gordon MacKinnon, President of New England Institute, which sponsors the Dale Carnegie Courses in Northeastern New England, is pleased to announce the appointment of Elbridge L Witham, President of Elbridge L Witham Associates, as Associate Sponsor of the Dale Carnegie Courses in Northern Massachusetts.

Mr Witham brings to the Dale Carnegie Course a vast experience in business and in merchandising, having recently retired from the position of President of Luther Witham Inc., of Lynn, one of New England's oldest and largest catering firms.

For the past thirteen years, Mr Witham has been an instructor of the Dale Carnegie Courses. In his new position he will be responsible for the development of all the Dale Carnegie Courses in Northern and Northeastern Massachusetts. He resides at 6 Park Street, Lynnfield.

In discussing the Dale Carnegie Course, Mr Witham claims that its training program is designed especially for the busy person. The Carnegie Course offers the most successful and quickest method known today for helping busy people redevelop in themselves the following success qualities:

1. PEOPLE KNOWLEDGE: the understanding and continuous use of good human relations. Most of us spend an entire lifetime trying to learn how.

2. THE ABILITY TO EXPRESS OURSELVES EFFECTIVELY AND NATURALLY. We all have need for effective communication every waking hour of the day. An idea or thought is not ours unless we can adequately put it into words.

3. THE DEVELOPMENT OF POISE and a quiet but strong confidence in one's self. It is said that to like other people we must like ourselves first.

4. THE ABILITY TO BE AND TO STAY ENTHUSIASTIC about our work. Enthusiasm they tell us is nothing more than confidence in action.

The general public is cordially invited to attend a free Demonstration Meeting on Monday evening, February 10th at 7:45 in the Haverhill YMCA

'GREAT DECISIONS'

Mrs Austin Rounds of Butters Row, and Paul Bodenstein of Woburn Street have been named to be the organizers of an informal discussion group, in the county and state wide 'Great Decisions' program beginning February 6th.

Great Decisions ... 1964, is an eight week program which will focus attention and provide background facts on eight key foreign policy issues. The eight issues will provide weekly topics for radio and TV programs, newspaper features, and community forums. The core of the program, however, will be the informal home discussion groups, according to Mr Bodenstein.

The primary objective is to allow every citizen to inform himself and to express his own opinions on foreign policy to Congress and the State Department.

Sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Boston, it is non-partisan, and a non-profit organization designed to promote international understanding through education. Persons interested should call Mrs Rounds at OL 8 8015 or Mr Bodenstein at OL 8 - 4937.

The Middlesex County National Bank through its chairman of the board, Oliver T Bergstrom, has announced that 1963 was a year of high activity in every phase of the bank's operation. Change, challenge and competition were vital factors in the year 1963.

Mr Bergstrom said 'While we produced the highest gross income in the bank's history, we at the same time produced the highest level of operating expense. The major item was the cost of moving to computer accounting. Much of this expense is non recurring and substantial savings through greater efficiency will be realized in future years'.

On December 31, 1963, total resources amounted to $116,716,153 and while deposits were slightly down from 1962, the average deposits throughout the year reached new highs.

Satisfactory gains were scored in loan portfolios led by installment loans which continued to grow at a satisfactory rate.

Net earnings after taxes were $4.06 per share compared to $4.21 a year ago. Dividends totalling $575,000 consisting of $2.00 plus an extra of $.30 were declared, the same as in 1962.

The following directors were reelected: Leonard Barbo, Charles W Bartlett, Harold G Carlson, Nor-

Competition is keen and to build sound growth, we must be continuously alert.'

We are determined to meet the challenge, confident of success made possible with the help of our entire organization'.

In a Saturday afternoon ceremony in St. Thomas Church, Miss Joyce Roberta Randell, daughter of Mrs. LaVerne Randell of West St. became the bride of Stephen Philip Cail, son of Lt. Harold F. Cail of the Wilmington Fire Department and Mrs. Cail, of Fairview Ave.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Vernon, The Rev. Paul Berube united the couple in marriage.

Miss Randell approached the altar in a semi-full length gown of sateen, with a rounded neck line and elbow length sleeves. She wore a cummerbund waist, clotted with pearls, and with a bow at the back. She had a shoulder length veil, and her Bible was covered with white camellias.

Miss Carol Randell, sister of the bride, was her Maid of Honor. Her gown, of silk, was topped with lace and had velvet bows at the waist. Her veil, of illusion pink, was matched by a bouquet of two shades

Mrs. Cail wore a street length lured blue dress, and had a corsage of pink roses.

The couple left after the reception, for a skiing trip in North Conway, New Hampshire.

The new Mrs. Cail chose for her going away costume a white and beige crocheted suit, with black accessories.

SNOWSTORM BABY

A baby boy, born unexpectedly during the snow storm of last Tuesday evening, is doing nicely, at the St. John's Hospital, in Lowell.

At about 10 pm David Sullivan, a US Mail Carrier, and his wife Beverly, a Registered Nurse, were called by their upstairs neighbor, at 10 Middlesex Avenue.

Al Jones broke the news to the Sullivans that his wife, Joan, was giving birth to their first child, right then and there.

Mrs. Sullivan sent her husband to call the Fire Department ambulance, and went upstairs herself, to assist Mrs. Jones.

The baby boy was born shortly thereafter, with Fireman Eddie Lyons assisting Mrs. Sullivan. 'I don't know what I would have done without Eddie' Mrs. Sullivan said afterwards - 'It was his first time to attend a childbirth, but he knew his lessons!'

While the birth was taking place Sullivan, at his wife's direction, cleared away snow, while Fireman J F Burke alternated with assistance upstairs and other duties.

Escorted by the police, the ambulance left for Lowell about half an hour after the baby was born.

Both Mr and Mrs Jones are newcomers to Wilmington.

Mrs. Sullivan is the former Beverly Cole, daughter of Mr and Mrs George Cole of Brand Ave.

Her husband now has a new nickname in the Wilmington Postoffice; 'Special Delivery'.
